

Dear Students, Parents, Higher Education Counsellors and University Representatives,

It is a great pleasure to welcome you and your parents to the ESF University Fair 2018, held here at KGV.

Inspiring futures and supporting you to be the best that you can be drives the work of ESF. Your parents, teachers and higher education counsellors play a critical role in supporting you to decide on your destination after school, but your strengths and passion must lead the way.

Today you have an opportunity to explore and ask questions about some of the options available. You will get the chance to meet with representatives from a number of universities from across the world. There is much to consider, not only for the next stage in your education but also careers beyond then. I am aware that making key decisions that impact your future can leave you feeling overwhelmed. Today you have the chance to step back and reflect on the hopes, dreams and ambitions that you have for your future.

I want to thank the university representatives for being here to support the ESF Fair. We value the partnerships between our schools and your institutions. We welcome your visits to our schools and all that you do to support our students.

I also want to thank ESF teachers and higher education counsellors for all the work they do in the background to support our students and for organising this event.

Finally, thank you to our parents for entrusting your child's education to ESF. I hope the University Fair opens up opportunities for you and your child to consider.

With best wishes for the years ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Belinda Greer
Chief Executive Officer
English Schools Foundation
