

GUIDANCE NOTES FOR COMPLETION THE FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE SCHEME APPLICATION FORM

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Under current Financial Assistance Scheme policy, families of applicants have to have had encountered "sudden and unexpected" change of circumstances* during the period of 12 months immediately prior to date of application in order to qualify for hardship allowance assessment (Means Test).

If an applicant whose application for financial assistance was successful in prior year and the adverse financial impact resulted from the "sudden and unexpected" change of circumstances is still proven after the 12 month period, the case is deemed eligible for the means test till the completion of student's schooling at primary or at secondary school. Under any circumstances, financial assistance granted to a particular student will not be more than 5 years (Year 2 to 6) and 6 years (Year 8 to 13) for primary and secondary school student respectively. Financial assistance will be granted provided that the means test is passed. Each case will be reviewed individually based on the supporting documents provided.

Tuition fees relief for 3 months will be granted following the death of a parent. Application needs to be made within 12 month after the death and a copy of the death certificate is required. Means test is not required in this situation. Should the student needs any further financial assistance after the 3 month period, a separate application is required.

If the family of an applicant is in receipt of Comprehensive Social Security Assistance (CSSA) from the government during the school year, means test will be exempt and full remission will be granted upon application and supporting document received. Additional financial assistance will be considered to cover the student's mandatory education or curriculum expenses including public examination fees, CAS activity fees, compulsory laptop and etc.

In the absence of "sudden and unexpected" change of circumstances, financial assistance will be considered provided that:-

- the family has 2 or more students currently studying in ESF schools, and
- one of whom has been studying in an ESF school continuously for 5 years or more, and
- the family has good tuition fees payment history, and
- the family's income and assets level pass the means test

Means test will be applied only if the applicant satisfies the eligibility criteria as set out in the financial assistance scheme.

Modified Adjusted Family Income (MAFI) mechanism will be used to assess the eligibility of a family for student financial assistance and its assistance level. Adjusted Family Income (AFI) is the mechanism being used by Student Financial Assistance Agency (SFAA) for the calculation of student financial assistance and it is regarded as a reference in this policy. Deductible expenses are factored into the AFI to calculate MAFI.

Gross annual income of the family – Deductible expenses

MAFI = -----
Number of family members + 1

- 1. Gross annual income of all family members includes salaries, double pay, leave pay, allowance, bonus, commission, tips, wages in lieu of notice of dismissal, profits from business / investment, alimony, contribution to the family from third parties, interest from fixed deposit, dividends from stocks and shares, rental income, monthly pension, widow's and children's compensation.
- 2. The number of family members normally refers to the applicant, his/her spouse, unmarried child / children residing with the family and the dependent parent(s) who are supported by the applicant.
- 3. For single-parent families of 2 to 3 members, the "plus 1 factor" in the denominator of MAFI formula will be increased to 2.

Deductible expenses include:

- 1. rental expense for the principal residence of the family capped at HK$20,000 per month;
- 2. home mortgage repayment for principal residence capped at HK$30,000 per month;
- 3. tuition fees for family members studying in ESF schools only;
- 4. family allowance as follows:-

•	1 dependent child	HK$16,000
•	2 dependent children	HK$32,000
•	3 dependent children	HK$48,000
•	4 dependent children	HK$64,000
•	5 dependent children and above	HK$80,000

Asset Test

- 1. As a general principle, assets held by the applicant in a family of two over HK$700k will result in rejection of the application, irrespective of the income levels, unless exceptional circumstances can be shown. Assets include all readily realizable assets such as cash, bank deposits, properties (exclude principal residence), cash value of insurance policy, investment in equities and bonds regardless in Hong Kong or in overseas.
- 2. Asset limit for a family steps up by HK$350k for each additional member and reaches its cap at HK$1,750k.
